One night many years ago, Jesus was walking with His disciples in a garden. Jesus was very, very sad and upset. Then Jesus left His disciples and went to pray by Himself. He asked God to please take away His suffering and make another way, but Jesus also said that He would do what God wanted—what was right. Jesus went to see His friends, but His disciples were asleep! Jesus prayed again by Himself while His disciples were sleeping and asked God not to make Him go through the pain of the cross. But again, Jesus said that He would do what God wanted and what was right. Jesus' disciples were still sleeping and Jesus prayed again a third time that God would take away the need to suffer. This time, too, Jesus said that He would do what God wanted and would choose to do the right thing. Then a huge group of people came to arrest Jesus. Jesus was nailed to the cross and He died and He was buried in a tomb. All of this was in God's plan to take away the punishment for people's sin. The story didn't end there though, Jesus rose from the dead and was alive! God's whole plan happened just the way God wanted because Jesus showed conviction and did what was right.
