

Empty Tombs

"Great for Easter morning breakfast"

Here's a breakdown of the symbolism:

- Large Marshmallows – body of Jesus
- Melted Butter – oils of embalming
- Cinnamon & Sugar Mix- spices used to anoint the body.
- Crescent Roll – the wrapping of Jesus' body or the tomb.
- Oven – the tomb
- Cavity in bun – the empty tomb or the empty cloths

Ingredients

- 1 (8 oz. can) Crescent Rolls or Crescent pastry sheet
- ¼ c. sugar
- 1 Tbsp. cinnamon
- ¼ c. melted butter
- 8 large marshmallows

• Directions

- Separate the rolls into 8 triangles or cut the sheet into 8 squares.
- Combine sugar and cinnamon.
- Dip each marshmallow into butter then roll in the cinnamon and sugar. Place on a dough piece. Roll up or lift corners of the squares to meet and pinch to seal.
- Dip the tops of each roll into melted butter and then into cinnamon and sugar mixture.
- Place seam side down in muffin tins.
- Bake at 375 degrees for 13-15 minutes.
- Eat warm.
